

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.

(2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."

(Matthew 19:14)

I have no greater joy than to hear that my children are walking in the truth.

(3 John 1:4)

Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it.

(Proverbs 22:6)

Tell it to your children, and let your children tell it to their children, and their children to the next generation.

(Joel 1:3)

These words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

(Deuteronomy 6:6-9)
